Dubai UAE, April 2019: Dubai's hottest rooftop venue, The Penthouse at FIVE Palm Jumeirah, has announced its Skyline Thursdays DJ line up for April, starring a host of international talent from around the world. Bookings include the sensational Felix Jaehn, Booka Shade, Hannah Wants as well as Lost Frequencies, back by popular demand. Arrive early to enjoy Time Out Restaurant "Best Bar Food" winner at the Skyline Thursdays Evening Brunch; AED149 for women and AED249 for gents. Party-goers can enjoy live cooking stations and unlimited house beverages from 9PM to 11PM. Top off your night with an after party set by Mykonos house favourite, NSI.

Felix Jaehn | 4 April | German platinum-selling DJ, producer and songwriter Felix Jaehn has gained international success since reaching the #1 spot in more than 55 countries with his rework of OMI's 'Cheerleader.' Touted by Rolling Stone as an 'exploding producer', Felix Jaehn is now a household name.

Booka Shade | 11 April | Berlin-based duo, Booka Shade (aka Walter Merziger and Arno Kammermeier) co-founded the legendary dance label, Get Physical Music with M.A.N.D.Y., Thomas 'DJ T.' Koch and Peter Hayo.

Hannah Wants | 18 April | For all those who want to dance their troubles away, Brit Hannah Wants is one of the brightest stars in the global electronic scene with a loyal fan base, not to mention a super-busy DJ diary. Hannah has quickly risen to the top tier of electronic music, with a slew of tracks signed to the likes of Food, Dirtybird, Toolroom and Virgin, a chart-chomping smash in 'Rhymes' and a Radio 1 residency.

Lost Frequencies | 25 April | Lost Frequencies is Brussels-based musical act that emerged from the current Electronic Dance Music (EDM) generation. This young Belgian prodigy emerged from the wide talent of aspiring EDM stars in mid- 2014 and instantly released the worldwide hit single, 'Are You With Me.' The track was released on Armada Music's sub label The Bearded Man.
