

Restaurants

How this street food hotspot is making an impact on the Dubai restaurant scene

Sponsored: Why Soul Street should be on top of your culinary bucket list

Time Out Editors

February 16, 2021 5:45 PM

Share:

1/2

Looking for somewhere different to try this week in Dubai? Soul Street has you covered. The playful dining experience is shaking up the Dubai foodie scene with a dare to be different setting and super street food.

And now the trendy restaurant at FIVE Jumeirah Village has even more reasons to visit with a fabulous new sunset sips ritual.

Every Saturday through Sunday as part of the Sunset Sip-tuation, you'll get unlimited gourmet street food, plus bottomless drinks, for Dhs199 for women and Dhs249 for gents.

Sunset Sip-tuation runs from 5pm until 8pm, so it's the perfect chance to enjoy the sunset with your friends.

You can sit outside on the terrace and enjoy the views over the pool, or dine inside in the funky dining room that's decked out with street art that's ripe for the 'gram.

The vibe is buzzing, so you're guaranteed a fun night out.

Dishes come from head chef Orlando Acevedo and combine five different cuisines, so expect tasty street food dishes from around the world.

Fancy checking out super-tasty eats? Then make a date at this street food restaurant for a fun night out.

Dhs199 (ladies), Dhs249 (gents). Sat-Thu 5pm-8pm. FIVE Jumeirah Village, JVC (055 700 0515).